As well as the record attendance of 375,000 fans over three nights at his legendary Knebworth shows - which has never been broken in the UK. More recently, July 2024 saw Robbie return to BST Hyde Park in London for a critically acclaimed and sold-out headline show. The tour announcement comes as fans eagerly await the release of Robbie's musical biopic film Better Man which hits UK cinemas on 26 December and sees Williams portrayed as a CGI monkey throughout... Based on the true story of Robbie's life and directed by Michael Gracey (The Greatest Showman), the film is uniquely told from Robbie's perspective, capturing his signature wit and indomitable spirit. The film follows his journey from childhood, to being the youngest member of chart-topping boyband Take That, through to his unparalleled achievements as a record-breaking solo artist – all the while confronting the challenges that stratospheric fame and success can bring. Discussing the film, director Michael Gracey honed in on Robbie referring to himself as a monkey over and again. "Robbie would say things like, 'I'm up the back dancing like a monkey.' After a while, I thought, 'Wouldn't it be amazing to represent Robbie as a monkey in the film?' Because Robbie is telling this story – and that's how he sees himself." 11 February 2025, 12:28 | Updated: 11 February 2025, 16:24 Robbie Williams is going on an exciting tour across UK and Europe in 2025.
